Case 1:20-cv-00844-NONE-EPG Document 19 Filed 03/09/21 Page 2 of 3

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C), this court has conducted a de novo review of this case. Having carefully reviewed the entire file, the court concludes that the magistrate judge's findings and recommendations are supported by the record and by proper analysis.

Accordingly,

1. The findings and recommendations entered on January 12, 2021 (Doc. No. 18) are adopted in full;

2. This case shall proceed on plaintiff's claims against defendants Lopez, Wade,

- 2. This case shall proceed on plaintiff's claims against defendants Lopez, Wade, White and John Doe for deliberate indifference to the allegedly unconstitutional conditions of plaintiff's confinement in violation of his Eighth Amendment rights as alleged in the second amended complaint (Doc. No. 16);
- 3. All other defendants and claims are dismissed without prejudice

&lt;sup>1</sup> The magistrate judge recommended that plaintiff's claims concerning alleged unsanitary conditions, raw sewage, and mold in his place of confinement be allowed to proceed, but that plaintiff's claims that he did not receive reasonable accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") be dismissed without prejudice due to non-compliance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 18 and 20. The undersigned interprets the findings and recommendations as recommending that plaintiff's claims regarding his shoes be included within the group of ADA claims that should be dismissed with prejudice. Specifically, plaintiff alleges that he cannot wear regular shoes because of his disabilities and that has requested special orthopedic shoes to facilitate his transfer in and out of his wheelchair, but that CDCR has failed to provide him with appropriate footwear. (Doc. No. 16 at 3.) Although plaintiff asserts that it is unsanitary for him to have no shoes, his central complaint with regard to shoes appears to be that CDCR is not providing specific shoes to him as an accommodation for his disabilities. Plaintiff is already proceeding on claims against CDCR and individual defendants in their official capacities for violating the ADA, in part due to their alleged failure to provide him with orthotics. (See Wallace v. CDCR, 1:20-cv-905, Doc. Nos. 20, 22, 27.)
